RELIGIOUS.

The Womans' Missionary Society of the Christian church will hold the regular monthly meeting, Friday at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Charlton Alexander, leader. Bring August "World Call."

Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church, is attending the General Convention of the Disciples Churches, at Winona Lake, Indiana, and will not be in his pulpit Sunday. The regular communion service will be held Sunday morning. No services at night.

The Synod of Kentucky of the Southern Presbyterian Church has not met in the Paris church "in the memory of man." The last meeting in Paris was in 1870. The Synod will meet with the First Presbyterian Church in Paris on October 11. The event promises to be of much interest to the church and to the whole community.

At the close of a two-weeks' revival held at the Shawnee Run Baptist church, near Harrodsburg, last week, resulting in 111 additions, ninety-seven converts were baptized in Salt River. The ceremony was witnessed by a crowd of about five thousand people. The meeting was conducted by Rev. Clarence Walker, of Lexington, and the pastor of the church, Rev. W. D. Moore.

The closing of the forty hours' devotion took place at St. Joseph's Catholic church, in Winchester. Rev. Church Wm. O'Hare, pastor of the Church of the Annunciation, in this city, was one of the visiting priests in attendance. The services concluded with a solemn procession of the children and the benediction. Special musical numbers were rendered by the choir.

The regular monthly meeting of the Business Girls' Missionary Society of the Christian church, was held last night. At six o'clock supper was served in the parlors of the church. A splendid program, with "Strangers Within Our Gates," as the topic, was rendered in a most attractive and interesting way. Miss Thelma Miller, vice-president, presided in the absence of Miss Esther Boatright, president, who has been very ill for some time.

NATIONAL LYCEUM OF CHIROPRACTORS MEETING

Dr. S. P. Mohnhey has returned to Paris from Davenport, Iowa, where he attended the sessions of the sixth annual Lyceum of Chiropractors, said to have been the greatest meeting in the history of the National body. Over 8,000 chiropractors from all parts of the world attended the sessions, which were rich in interest to all the participants. Addresses of subjects of interest to members of the chiropractic profession were delivered by men and women who have become national figures in the chiropractic world, and a varied program of interesting numbers, lectures and demonstrations filled each day program.

The Lyceum was officially opened with the unveiling of a memorial bust of Dr. D. D. Palmer, of Davenport, founder of the Chiropractic profession.

Over 6,000 chiropractors from all parts of the world and every State in the Union participated in the monster street parade, the big feature in the Sixth Annual Lyceum of the Palmer School of Chiropractic in Davenport. The parade, which was over three miles long and which took nearly an hour to pass a given point was no doubt the largest that has ever been seen there. Thousands lined the streets along the entire line of march and cheered the monster procession and B. J. and Mrs. Mabel H. Palmer.

More than 100 beautifully decorated floats appeared in the parade to compete for the various prizes which were offered.

The principal floats entered in the parade were those representing the various States. The large float of the B. P. O. E. Antlers Club was one of the most attractive floats among those of the organizations. The float of the K. of C. Columbian Club, was also well designed and was applauded by the crowd along the line of march. The floats entered by California, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Minnesota, New York, New England, Dixie States, Pennsylvania, Utah and Washington were among the most striking in theme and beauty.

Chiropractic was discovered by D. D. Palmer, father of Dr. B. J. Palmer in the year 1895. For many years D. D. Palmer was well-known in Davenport. He was a magnetic healer and a profound thinker on subjects pertaining to life. Harvey Lillard, a colored man, was the first person to receive an adjustment. Lillard, who was janitor of a downtown office building, was examined by D. D. Palmer, who discovered a lump on the spine. He pushed the vertebra back into place and in this manner restored Lillard's hearing. This was the beginning of the science of chiropractic. D. D. Palmer reasoned that if by pushing one vertebra into place one ailment could be cured there was no reason why he would not be able to cure another. One experiment after another followed with gratifying results.

D. D. Palmer practiced the new science in Davenport for a number of years. Although he started to tell the world of his discovery it remained for his son, B. J. Palmer, to develop what his father had discovered.

It was B. J. Palmer who founded the P. S. C. It was a small beginning and few people in Davenport realized that it was destined to be one of the biggest institutions in the world. In fact it was not for many years that Davenport people realized that there was such an institution, this being the case even after people from all corners of the globe started to flock to Davenport.

In 1910 the school was still in its infancy. The entire student body at that time was not as large as a single class at the school to-day. But steadily the institution grew. One improvement followed another. One piece of property after another was acquired and one new building followed another.

The early history of the P. S. C., is interesting. It passed through a financial crisis now and then and was threatened with dissolution, but the dominance of one idea—chiropractic—kept it afloat.

B. J. Palmer was always a staunch believer in publicity. Printers' ink was his friend from the start and his first move was to send out pamphlets explaining chiropractic. It was in this way that he drew students to his school. The present school at the top of Brady street is a monument of constructive advertising and a continued campaign of publicity.

Dr. Mohnhey stated that one of the most artistic floats in the big parade, and which attracted a great deal of interest, was one placed by the Kentucky Chiropractors, winning second prize. The float was mounted on a large horse, in the center of which was a saddle with crossed whips, while in the center was a throne on which was seated a woman, depicting two of the most famous products of the State—horse and a beautiful woman.

PROGRESS OF LOCAL MARKETING CAMPAIGN

Already the success of the Co-operative Burley Tobacco Marketing Association's campaign in this county is assured, and it looks like the county growers are determined to sign up almost one hundred per cent of the county's tobacco crop under the Association plan. This is as it should be, as the patriotic workers, under the able guidance of County Chairman Sam Clay, have labored long and unceasingly for the success of this most laudable undertaking.

Chairman Clay has just returned from an extended stay at Atlantic City, and although pleased that Bourbon growers have signed up over 5,500,000 pounds of tobacco to date, is very anxious to get Bourbon's full share of the weed signed up by the end of this week, if possible.

Let every grower do his duty by calling at the office of the Association, in the Bourbon county court house, and affixing his name to one of the contracts. It is the only way, the fair way, and the way in which every farmer can assist his neighbor and at the same time do justice to both himself and the members of his family.

The growers of the Hutchison precinct held a rousing precinct meeting last night, at which addresses were made by Virgil Chapman and others in the interest of the Association plan. The meeting was well worth attending, and was the means of bringing out a large and representative crowd of farmers and growers. The meeting promises to have good results in furthering the plans and objects of the marketing plan.

A meeting of farmers and growers of the Clintonville precinct will be held at Clintonville to-night, Friday, September 2, at 7:30 o'clock. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance, as the cause is one that should be brought to the attention of every farmer in the county. Well-known speakers will be present to explain the plan.

Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill will address the growers of the county at a meeting to be held in the court house on Monday, Court Day, at 1:30 o'clock. Every tobacco grower in the county is urged to be present at this meeting and hear Mr. Cantrill who knows his subject.

NOTES FROM THE BASE BALL FIELD.

Manager M. B. Jackson has booked a game from the next Sunday afternoon, at the Second street ball park, between the Paris Ruggles and the Mt. Sterling team. These teams met earlier in the present season, while the game was young and put up a good exhibition of the National game. Campanoni will do the twirling for the locals, and with anything like good support from his team mates, ought to be able to take the measure of the Montgomery county ball tossers. Robertson, former league umpire, will handle the indicator for this game. Let all the fans and rooters come out and boost the game. Play will be called promptly at 2:30 p. m.

A record-breaking crowd filled the grand stand and bleachers at the Second street ball park Tuesday afternoon, to witness the struggle between the Methodists and Presbyterian teams of the Church League. The game resulted in a signal victory for the Methodist team, they taking the long end of a 14 to 4 score over their opponents. Masterly pitching by Owens, for the Methodists, and good support by his team mates were the chief factors in gaining the victory. The outstanding features of the game were the pitching of Owens, the fielding of Smylie and Davis and a brilliant steal to home plate by Owens. Swearingen, for the Presbyterians, was hard hit. The Presbyterians started the game with a lead but the Methodists came up strong, and overcame it. Oliver Mann, of the Ruggles team, officiated as umpire.

The batteries were: Presbyterians—Swearingen, Armstrong and Tadlock; Methodists—Owens and Owens.

During a game at Winchester between the Baptist and Christian church teams, James Stewart, son of Charles Setwart, Winchester tobacco buyer, was struck on the head by a bat which flew out of the hands of a teammate who was striking at the ball. His skull was fractured. Stewart is in the Clark County Hospital, and is not expected to recover.

The Cynthiana and Widedemann teams will play at the Cynthiana ball park Sunday afternoon.

The Cynthiana Democrat's sporting editor describes the game last Sunday at Cynthiana between the Paris Ruggles and Cynthiana teams: "Cynthiana won the third victory over Paris, Sunday, at Riverside Park in a loose, rambling game that was as full of thrills as an old maid's kiss. King was the only obstacle the Parisians had, and at times he was as wild as a buck, but with his erratic hurling he struck out fifteen

BOY SENT TO REFORM SCHOOL

In the County Court, Judge Batterton, after hearing of testimony in the case of a lad named Rankin, arrested charged with stealing a coat from Boone Baldwin, entered an order sentencing the lad to the State Reform School at Greendale until he attains his majority.

When placed on trial the boy told the Court how he and several others had systematically robbed automobiles, delivery wagons, stores and residences in Paris of valuables which they sold for sums ranging from fifteen cents to fifty cents. During the trial a negro named Frank Hicks, who had been seen with the boys, and who could give no evidence of having been employed lately, was sentenced to jail for ten days on a vagrancy charge. Judge Batterton issued a warning to the other lads and their parents.

batters. His support was ragged, ivory-headed, rubber-gloved and butter-fingered; outside of that it did very well. After holding the Ruggles for eight innings without a score the bars were let down and the visitors took advantage of it by running in three scores on a single, a muff and wild pitch. The local's total was 9."

The game at the Second street park yesterday between the Christian and Baptist teams resulted in a victory for the former team by a score of 13 to 9. The feature of the game was the pitching by Thompson. The batteries were: Christians—Thompson and Arnsparger; Baptists—Williams and Scanlan. The League standing is as follows:

	W	L	Per	Ct
Methodists	2	0	100
Christian	1	1	50
Presbyterians	1	1	50
Baptists	0	2	0

The next game between League teams will be that between the Christians and Presbyterian teams, on next Tuesday, September 6.
